“RUMOR HAS IT . . .”

"Alma Mater"

Gather we from far-flung places
Loyal in the bond we share;
Sons of Abbey ever splendid
Gallant spirits proudly bear.
Voices raised on high are singing —
Bells are chiming to proclaim
Alma Mater! Belmont Abbey!
Sacred do we hold your name.

Dear to us the vast expanse
Of skies that arch your custom sod;
Dear your mighty spires lifted
Like our hearts to honor God.
Let your truth shine forth unfailing;
Let all know your beauty rare.
Hail! O Abbey, Alma Mater —
Hear your praises fill the air.

Homecoming 87

Paint The Town Red!

Basketball games, dances and parents are just some of the things that go into the production of Homecoming. Adding to the excitement of the already hectic Homecoming is the simultaneous occurrence of parents weekend. Preparations for these events are comprised of everything from months of planning by the Homecoming Committee to cleaning the room to impress Mom and Pop. Parents are kept busy with tours and dinners while Abbey orphans attend the dance and basketball game. Alumni also added to the weekend activities and found themselves transformed back to their days at the Abbey. Parents were also given the opportunity to see their children's theatrical talents in the production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Finally, Mom and Dad got a chance to "experience" the fraternity life during the open house parties. All these events went into making Homecoming 87 a memorable experience.

Pi Gamma Mu

Ye Shall Know The Truth And
The Truth
Shall Set You
Free

The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu International Honor Society in Social Science is to improve scholarship in the social science and to achieve synthesis therein, to inspire social service to humanity by an intelligent approach to the solution of social problems; to engender sympathy toward others with different opinions and institutions by a better mutual understanding and to supplement and to support, but not to supplant existing social science organizations by promoting sociability and attendance at meetings.

The motto of the society is the epigram of the Master Teacher, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The society's symbol is a key with a wreath at the bottom to suggest that social science is the outgrowth and fulfillment of natural science. The running figure represents the ancient Greek torch race, which symbolizes humanity bringing knowledge to the solution of its own problems and passing on the light from generation to generation.

Π Γ Μ

Pi Gamma Mu of Belmont Abbey College has honored Benedictine Anselm G. Biggs, O.S.B. for more than 53 years of service to Belmont Abbey Community. At its first initiation of the 1986-87 academic year, the social science honor society presented a special plaque to Fr. Anselm G. Biggs, O.S.B. (second from left) for his many years of administrative, spiritual and educational leadership to the community. Author and translator of several books and numerous articles, he served the college and the monastery in many positions. He presently teaches history at the college.

Witnessing the presentation by Professor Stanley J. Dudko (first from right), Faculty Moderator of Pi Gamma Mu International Honor Society in Social Science are past recipients of the award, are from left to right: Fr. Oscar Burnett, O.S.B., Professor of Philosophy, Dr. George C. Herndl, Chairman of the English Department and Director of Institutional Self Study, Fr. Anselm G. Biggs, O.S.B., Professor of History and Professor Stanley J. Dudlow, Faculty Moderator of Pi Gamma Mu. Former recipients of the award not pictured are: Fr. John P. Bradley, provost of the college and former U.S. Congressman Basil Whitener and John Oetyen O.S.B., former Academic Dean and Past President of Belmont Abbey College.

Judicial Board

The Judicial Board provides assistance to the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Director of Residence Life in Adjudicating cases referred to it by the Vice-President for Student Affairs. Judicial Board members have a tremendous responsibility to determine the guilt or innocence of students accused of violating college regulations. In making their decisions, they have to analyze evidence presented to them verbally and objectively, investigate all aspects of the incident, and render an objective and just verdict. They indeed learn and sharpen skills such as analysis of data, objective investigation, and decision-making. They gain knowledge of due process and student rights and responsibilities. The skills they use and develop as Board members can be used in any classroom situation. Judicial Board Members will be responsible for attending Board meetings and participating actively in discerning the relevant facts of the disciplinary cases presented to them.

Greek Week

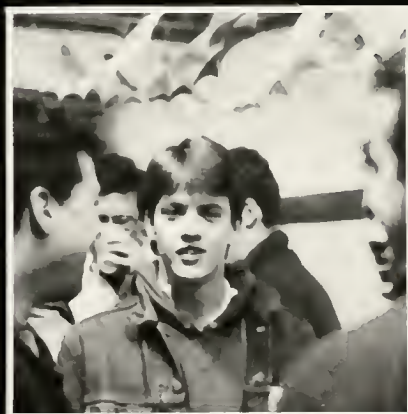

Throughout our paths we have met goals, shared friendships and established ideas.

For some, it was the peacefulness of the mid-day sun, the exhilaration of a cool shower, or the enjoyment of being together.

Suddenly we began to search, we knew not what we were searching for but there was a need to search — to dig deeply into the essence of a new beginning ...

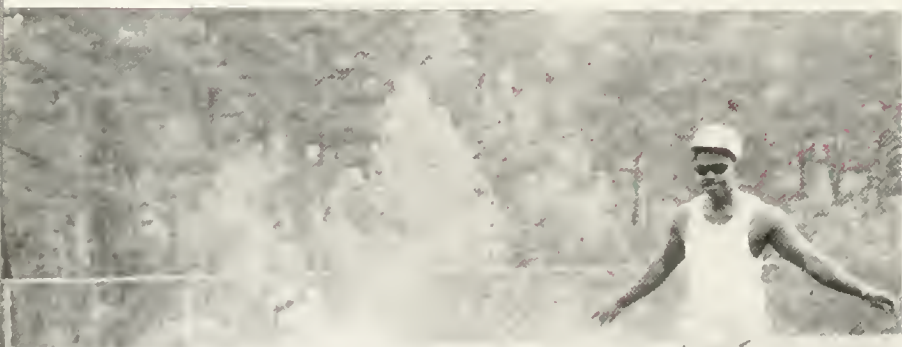

... a path with strength to endure all obstacles ... a pathway with true destiny.

For other's it's dream of success, the hope for happiness and the fulfillment of brand new ideas.

GREAT

Frightfully and hesitantly we thought to ourselves, "we'll never pass this way again" ...

... finally our pathways are to be divided, a new beginning is about to unfold.

In the past, we have probed into mysteries of knowledge and sometimes those mysteries were solved, and so it shall continue.

The way was long and never ending but we had enough to carry on ...
expressing the joy of extravagant years at "The Abbey".

Special Olympics

No classes today, yet many Abbey students and faculty get up early because it is the day the Abbey hosts Special Olympics. Volunteers from the Abbey, Sacred Heart and the Gaston County Community came together to share in the lasting memories of the children's enthusiasm and achievements that they will come to know by the end of the day. Special Olympics is truly special in that a bond known as friendship comes alive and is felt and expressed by all who were involved in making Special Olympics as memorable and as joyous as the year before. Thank you to all who lended the support!

Belmont Abbey

Crusaders

Are

Abbey Soccer . . . The Kicking Crusaders

Three against one . . . who'll be victorious as Julio Hererra takes the ball up the field for the Crusaders.

"This ball is mine" says a determined Doug Patmore as he head butts it to teammate Billy Howley.

Prepare to run with it says Scott Morgan to Chris Cook as he maneuvers the ball for the Abbey.

Trying to score a goal is what Tom McGowan is doing with assistance from teammates Scott Slanda and Russell Patmore.

This move requires a little bit of skill and a whole lot of patience as Chris Cook works the ball against his opponent.

Studying plays and learning from others is what Trey Barnett is doing as he watches the Crusaders fight their foe.

"Check Him" says Doug Patmore while Butch Uhouse gets ready to help defend the Abbey goal.

What are they doing out there? Wonders Coach Robbie Church and Assistant Coach Todd Herbst as they look on.

Bill Howley takes command of the ball as the Crusaders, with help from Doug Patmore and Clive Burger, set up the offense.

"Here we come, ready or not" says Butch Uhouse and Kurt Venarec to score the Abbey Goal.

Abbey Tennis — Aces For Love!

"So ... where are our opponents?" asks Chris, Sandy, Rob, Michael, Sean, and Andy as they wait to begin their matches. (l to r)

Waiting, watching, and learning as the others play are Chris and Sandy. (l to r)

"I'm ready. Bring on my next challenger!" says Michael Mitchell while Chris, David, Sandy, and Rob look on patiently waiting and planning strategies.

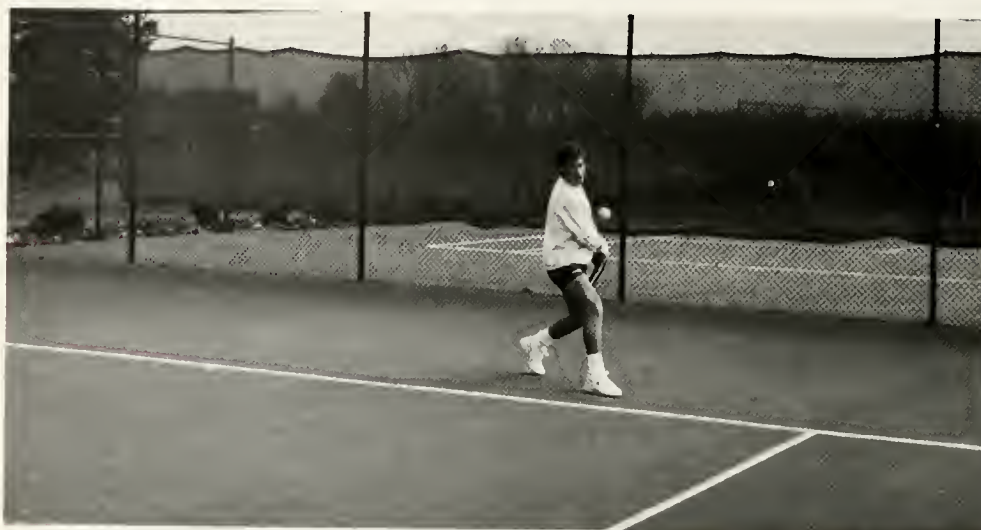

"I'm set, let's play some tennis" says David Gregory as he approaches the Abbey Courts ready to play.

In anticipation of a return, Sean Holton and Rob Greco rally during doubles play against their opponents.

Proper procedures, techniques, and professionalism are the Abbey Trademarks as the Mighty Crusaders strive to become number one.

Abbey Volleyball . . . Spike It!

Block one for the Abbey is what Beth Ford does for the Crusaders.

Experience, patience and wisdom make up team captain Michelle Rasche as she leads the team to victory.

Prepared and ready to receive the opponent's serve are in back — Mari Sanchez and in front — Rita Reddy, Julie Fitzgerald, Michelle Rasche, and Beth Ford.

Volleyball Team for 1986-1987

Kneeling: Mari Sanchez, Muriel Downs, Julie Fitzsgerald, Vicky Klemczak.

Standing: Marie Murphy (manager), Beth Ford, Connie Sexton, Michelle Rasche, Kathy Stickle, Rita Reddy, Coach Sybil Jenkins.

Abbey Basketball . . . Red Rage!

Planning strategies and giving advice to the Crusaders is Coach Kevin Eastman and Assistant Coach Ron Carr.

Teammates 'til the end are Dip Metress (10) and LaVar Curry (12) as they run up the court along with Mike Ward (25), Kevin Beamer (33) and Brent Turner (53) to set up the Abbey defense.

Shooting two for the Abbey is Mike Gurley.

Giving signals to his teammates is LaVar Curry.

Brent Turner drives in a lay up for the Mighty Crusaders with Mike Ward and LaVar Curry ready to rebound.

At the free throw line for the Red Rage is Mike Ward as a result of getting fouled by his opponent.

Going for the Hookshot is Kevin Beamer while Mike Ward anticipates the rebound.

Slam! Jam! is what Kevin Beamer plans upon doing with the basketball while Jerry Smith (55) and LaVar Curry (12) block out their opponents.

Defense Abbey Defense! Mike Ward (25), Kevin Beamer (33) and LaVar Curry (12) prepare to block their opponent's shots and prevent them from rebounding.

Up in the air for the shot is Kevin Beamer while Brent Turner and Mike Ward move themselves into position.

Tipping the ball into the basket is Mike Ward as Brent Turner (53) and Kevin Beamer block out their opponents.

With a look of determination in his eyes. LaVar Curry shoots the ball for Belmont Abbey while Kevin Beamer (33), Mike Ward (25) and Enc Newton position themselves for a possible offensive rebound.

Abbey Women's Basketball — Take It To The Hoop!

Avoid the block & shoot two is Audrey Murray as Gay Abood (22) comes to her aid.

"It's mine, I'm going for it," says Gay Abood as Tia Tolliver and Sheri McClain prepare for the offensive rebound.

Talent and skill as well as patience is the name of the game for Audrey Murray as she dribbles the ball up the court for the Abbey.

Rebound that basketball! Determined Abbey players, Gay Abood (22) and Tia Tolliver (42) fight their opponents for the Abbey.

Graduation

Congratulations and the Best Wishes, Luck, Health and Happiness! These are the gifts that have been bestowed upon the Graduates of 1987.

The many men and women who have lived different lifestyles yet they come together to become one of the Abbey. Here they have shared and lived forever-lasting, joyous memories and friendships. They have shared learning experiences; some painful, some exhilarating and lets not forget the embarrassing (or shall we) — But still they learned and they shared. Now they share the most important memory of their college years. No, not the bottomless kegs or the ultimate party, not even the most memorable Spring Break, rather, the Graduation Day. The procession down Abbey Lane, the leadership of Larry Simon — the Senior Class President, the speech of the celebrated author — Pat O'Connor, the receiving of "poster-size" diplomas and the sound of Don Perrion exploding all around. This is the "Memory" and so for one last look ... the CLASS OF 1987 ...
